

BURIAL

Of Victims of the Boat Disaster

HUNDRED FUNERALS TOOK PLACE THIS MORNING

Coroner's Inquest Into Cause Begins Monday.

BY AN OIL LAMP'S EXPLOSION

It Is Now Thought the Fire Started— Five Hundred and Seventy Bodies Are Recovered.

New York, June 18.—A tabulation of the victims of the General Slocum disaster today shows that 570 bodies have been recovered, of which 522 have been identified. The number of persons missing is placed at 271. The police report that eight more bodies of victims of the Slocum were recovered today at North Brothers Island. Men in boats with grappling irons surround the island and other bodies will be recovered in this way.

The Knickerbocker Steamship company claim that the removal of the hulk is the duty of the marine underwriters, but others claim that as the disaster occurred when the boat was the property of the steamboat company they should spare no expense in recovering the dead. The city authorities have intimated that if something is not done today, steps will be taken to compel those legally responsible to remove the wreck.

The coroner's inquest into the cause and responsibility for the disaster will begin on Monday.

A witness turned up today who declares that the fire started below Ninth street. If this is so it shows that Captain Van Schaick ran the burning vessel for nearly two miles before he beached her. The witness is John Engelmann. He came to the morgue this morning to look for two sisters who were lost. Engelmann says that he jumped overboard with his wife in his arms at 92d street, and that the fire broke out several blocks below that point. He saved his wife and himself, but could not help his sisters.

Property valued at nearly $50,000 was found on one victim alone. It was found on the body of a woman who is still among the unidentified dead.

The fire was probably due to an exploding oil lamp.

HUNDRED FUNERALS

Of Victims of the Steamer Slocum Disaster This Morning—Day of Sorrow in New York.

New York, June 18.—Today, the first funeral day for victims of the General Slocum horror, saw the stricken east side district thronged with people. Many were mourning friends and relatives of the dead, others were attracted to the scene by that morbid curiosity so prevalent in human nature. The throngs were subdued and respectful. Men and boys removed their hats and caps whenever a funeral cortege was encountered passing through the avenues of crepe, while women and girls stood with heads bowed down. Many women wept, especially at the sight of the white hearse which sometimes contained two and three little white caskets. There were over 100 funerals this morning.

The wealth of Russia in furs is being rapidly sapped. It is reported that in a certain district of the Yenesei Government, where 56 years ago hunters annually shot 28,000 sable, 6,000 bears, 24,000 foxes, 14,000 blue foxes, 300,000 squirrels, 5,000 wolves and 200,000 hares, hardly a sable can be found today. The blame is laid to the wanton destruction of wild animals in the course of the hunting expeditions.

ARREST

of President Moyer on Serious Charge in Colorado.

Telluride, Colo., June 18.—President Moyer, of the Western Federation of Miners, was taken to Cripple Creek this morning by a deputy sheriff and a detective from the mine owners' association to answer to the charge of aiding and abetting in the murder of Charles MacCormack and Melvin Beck, who were killed in the Victor explosion several months ago. The Federation's leader is highly indignant at the charges, declaring them to be part of the scheme to keep him in jail. He says he is anxious for an immediate trial.

BARBOUR

Is No Longer Assistant Cashier of the National Bank at Rising Sun, Indiana.

Rising Sun, Ind., June 18.—Myron L. Barbour is no longer assistant cashier of the Rising Sun National bank. He was relieved of his position soon after the jury in the Gillespie murder case disagreed. The officials of the bank, while still having confidence in the ability and honesty of Barbour, were compelled to obey the pressure demanding his removal. Several clients threatened to withdraw their deposits, and while those with whom Barbour had been so long associated will not believe him guilty of complicity in the Gillespie tragedy, they felt that under the circumstances he should resign his position.

It is conceded that the next trial in September will be more bitterly fought than the previous one. It is reported that Jim Gillespie will be tried separately next time, but the attorneys for the defense will not say what course they will pursue.

THE COURT

AUTHORIZES EMPLOYMENT OF ACCOUNTANT.

In the Newark Savings Bank investigation—Mr. Suter, of Zanesville, Is Man Selected.

The latest development in the Newark Savings Bank company case in court was the asking of a formal order of the court, authorizing the receiver to employ an expert accountant. This was granted on Saturday morning, upon request of Attorney J. M. Swartz. The receiver employed the services of an expert some days ago and the request to the court was filed in order to make all proceedings regular.

The court ordered that the receiver proceed under his present agreement with J. Hope Suter for the present, but gave it to be understood that a time limit should be placed on his expensive services, for which he is to be paid $10 per day.

It is understood that Mr. Lingafelter is to go to the bank Monday to explain certain matters in connection with the books which are being examined.

Hearing in Progress.

Several days ago a man made his appearance near Clay Lick with a neck yoke about his neck and called at a number of farm houses, making signs that he wanted something to eat. Finally Samuel Walker, of Hanover, and Curtis Rian, of Madison township, captured him and brought him to Newark and preferred a charge of larceny against him. At the hearing Saturday it developed that his name was Joe Bogue, and that he was a Polish Slav, unable to speak the English language. He claimed to have taken the neck yoke from a horse belonging to William Hutchinson, near Black Hand, because he thought it was a sin for the horse to be forced to wear it.

After thoroughly investigating the matter it was decided to see if arrangements could not be made to send the man to Shawnee, where a number of his countrymen reside, and if possible to secure work for him, as he is a miner.

Mr. Adolph Schiff, of "The Fair," acted as interpreter.

NEW PHASE

IN CAMBRIDGE BANK CASE IS DISAPPEARANCE

Of Miss Norris, the Supposed Fiancee of Barber—Overdrafts and Notes Reach a Big Sum.

Cambridge, O., June 18.—A new phase of the Commercial bank failure and the disappearance of the two bank officials; Cashier P. C. Patterson and Vice President H. O. Barber, develops in the disclosure of the disappearance of Miss Carrie Norris, of this city, the supposed fiancée of Barber. It appears that Miss Norris, who, according to rumor, has been engaged to Barber for some time, has been missing since last Saturday, the same day that Patterson and Barber left town, supposedly then for Cincinnati. Since then, so far as can be learned, nothing has been seen or heard of her in this city. It is generally supposed here that she left either with Barber, or joined him for a hasty marriage or accompanied him on his trip to escape the consequence of the bank trouble here.

It now appears probable that the aggregate of notes and overdrafts by which Patterson and Barber secured funds from the bank will closely approximate $100,000. While the inspection of the accounts is not yet complete, Receiver R. V. Orme has gone far enough to discover that the notes and overdrafts of Patterson amount to $44,000, including one note for $9,500 signed by D. B. Patterson, his wife; and that the notes and overdrafts made by H. O. Barber amount to over $36,000. Besides this there is one note made by the two of them for $1,000, and there are notes for over $18,000 signed by other names, which there is reason to believe were paid off by the makers, and kept on the books for the personal benefit of Patterson and Barber. Receiver Orme says the reports on the streets that account books of the bank have disappeared are not correct so far as he knows. He believes all the books of the institution are on hand.

The Byesville bank, of which Patterson and Barber were stockholders, and which closed its doors following the run of Tuesday, opened again for regular business Friday afternoon.

Mrs. P. C. Patterson, of Cambridge, is very seriously ill and her mental condition brought on by the trouble in which her husband is implicated at times is alarming. She is still at her home in the Colonial block, which she persistently refuses to leave.

WARNING

Given to Coshocton Man, Who Is Threatened With a Heavy Coat of Tar and Feathers.

Coshocton, O., June 18.—Tar and feathers are reported to be imminent in the southeastern part of this township. A farm hand with his wife and seven children to support, is harboring two colored men whom the neighbors declare are accompanied on drives and walks by the wife and her eldest daughter, a girl of 17.

The family has received whitecap warnings, and if the intimacy between the races does not cease, authorities fear that indignant neighbors may take matters into their own hands. The community is greatly excited.

SCARED TO DEATH

Was Mrs. William Ethell, Who Fell Into the Muskingum River, But Was Rescued

Zanesville, O., June 18.—Mrs. William Ethell died last night as the result of a peculiar accident sustained at McConnellsville Thursday night. While she was walking the plank from the shore onto the steamer Valley Gem, to come to Zanesville, she slipped and fell into the river. She was quickly rescued, but the shock and scare were too much for her. She was literally scared to death.

Dr. J. Steinbach, of Winona, Minn., wants to employ an expert to repair the old Liberty bell so that it will give out the same sounds it did in Colonial days. He will bring the matter to the attention of congress.

Columbus, O., June 18.—L. G. Marple, Joseph W. Barber and Isaac K. Davis, of Columbus; W. C. Harple, of Akron, and B. E. Sapp, of Mt. Vernon, were found guilty yesterday in the United States court of conspiracy to use the mails with intent to defraud. The specific charge was that they had used the mails in securing the exchange of Indemnity Building and Loan stock, Cleveland, for stocks of the Indianola Heating and Light company, Columbus; Rapid Transit Traction company, Cleveland, and Dayton and Kenton Traction company, Dayton, all of which was represented by the prosecution as being practically worthless. Immediately after the return of the verdict the attorneys for the defense gave notice of the filing of a motion for a new trial. This will be heard Friday of next week.

With the exception of L. G. Marple, all of the accused were released upon bond until Friday, Marple being returned to the county jail. Bond was fixed at $2,500 for all except Davis, who was released upon $500 bond.

Gov. Nash's Condition

Columbus, O., June 18.—Ex-Governor George K. Nash's condition this morning seemed slightly improved but the physicians think it is only a temporary improvement.

IN CHAIR

MOSE JOHNSON PAID PENALTY OF HIS CRIME.

Colored Murderer Met Death Bravely Early This Morning—"God Be Merciful." Was His Prayer.

Columbus, O., June 18.—Moses Johnson, colored, was executed this morning at 12:20. The victim was in the chair for 13 minutes, and during that time the current was turned into him four times. While the electrical apparatus did not cause death instantly, as in cases prior to the execution of Schiller Friday morning, the scenes enacted then were not repeated.

The doctors profited by their experience of Thursday night, and rather than be compelled to place the prisoner back into the chair after he was declared dead, they waited a sufficient length of time to prove conclusively that there was not a spark of life in the body. Heretofore, the physicians have relied alone upon their ears to learn if there were heart beats, but this time the stethoscope was brought into use, and after the first charge that instrument revealed faint pulsations.

While the prison physician, C. O. Marden, insists the electrical equipment is as good as ever, it appears that there is a loss of current somewhere. However, expert electricians made a thorough examination of the outfit, and they declare that everything was in tip-top shape. No one can give an adequate explanation of the failure of the current to do deadly work in the first charge, as is usually the case, and the only cause ascribed is that the men were of strong resisting power.

Johnson was cool when he walked into the room. He thanked the prison officials for their kindness.

As he uttered the prayer, "God be merciful," the current was turned on. Johnson accepted religion and was satisfied that he had been forgiven.

Johnson was convicted of the murder of a woman in an insurance company in Portsmouth, on the night of October 17, 1903. Test had gone to the residence of Mrs. Sarah Cullum to collect the premium on an insurance policy, when Johnson and a man named Rufus Burcham, mistaking Test for a friend of Mrs. Cullum, broke into the house and attacked him. A fierce struggle ensued, during which Test was stabbed five times, and was begging his assailants to spare his life when Johnson fired two shots into his back and left him to die. At the trial it developed that Johnson had threatened to kill any man whom he ever chanced to see in company with the Cullum woman, and he was convicted of murder in the first degree. Burcham, who was drunk at the time of the murder, was sentenced to life imprisonment. Johnson was colored, while Mrs. Cullum and Burcham are white.

ROOSEVELT

Is Told That Cortelyou Must Be Sent to Chicago Now If He Is to Win Fight.

Chicago, June 18.—If Secretary Cortelyou is to be elected chairman of the national committee, it is absolutely essential that he come to Chicago at once. That is the substance is a telegram that has been sent to President Roosevelt by Congressman Litauer, of New York, after a careful "sizing up" of the strength of the opposition to Mr. Cortelyou's selection. This call for assistance in stemming the tide of antagonism in itself shows the intensity of the feeling among the members of the national committee, who believe that a practical politician should be chosen to run the campaign.

SUIT

Is Brought by a Teacher Against Six of Her Former Pupils.

Sullivan, Ind., June 18.—The suit brought by Miss Ethelne Sinclair, formerly teacher in the "battermill neighborhood," Cass township, against six of her former pupils, claiming $10,000 damages, has reached trial in the circuit court.

Last December, because she would not outline what she proposed doing with reference to a "treat," she was seized by her pupils, dragged to a nearby pond and, after the ice was broken, ducked in the water, fastened to a trough and left in the icy water until rescued by neighbors. The exposure almost killed the young woman.

BUTTON

Reading Roosevelt and Fairbanks Was Worn by Senator Scott at Chicago This Morning.

Chicago, June 18.—Senator Scott, of West Virginia, appeared this morning wearing a large Roosevelt and Fairbanks button. The appearance of this button is taken as an indication that somebody in authority knows that Fairbanks has given the word that he is willing. Asked about the significance of the button, Scott said: "Fairbanks will be the next vice president."

"Did he say that he will accept the nomination?"

"No, he didn't, but I say so. You'll see many more buttons like them here in a short time."

Senator Fairbanks opened the day with indications of continued silence.

The company did not ask any bonus whatsoever, from the people of Utica. They have made a contract with the Utica Gas Company, however, and it is understood that they will be able to obtain their fuel at a very low rate.

A feature of the plan of operating the plant will be that every glassworker employed will be a stockholder, and the business will be on the co-operative system throughout. The company will erect a 24-blower tank factory and at least 100 men will be employed from the first.

It is rumored that if gas is found a new factory will be located there. Mr. Wilson does not care to state the nature of the industry but it is generally accepted here that he has made arrangements for the location of a factory if he is successful in finding gas.

GRANVILLE NOTES.

Granville, O., June 18.—On Friday evening Miss Ruth McKibben very charmingly entertained a few of her young lady friends in honor of Miss Tuttle, who leaves today to make her future home in Springfield, O. During the first part of the evening the lights were turned low in the dining room, where a Swiss luncheon was served to the guests, and only those who have participated in this strange kind of luncheon can appreciate it. After the luncheon had been finished the lights were turned up again, after which dainty refreshments were served. The guests were: Misses Rachel and Bess Colwell, Helen Case, Edna Thornton, Grace Harford, Stella Moore, Anna Rhodes, Mabel Butterfield, Bess Thornton and Mary Tuttle.

The family of Frank Moore will move from the old Dunlevy place into the Granger cottage on Monday, where they will reside until their new home in Shepardson Court is finished.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and, therefore, requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only curative cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer One Hundred Dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

IN THE NEWARK LODGE ROOMS

Notwithstanding the warm weather and many outside attractions the various secret societies of the city are growing with remarkable rapidity. All the different lodges of the city report work night after night, and still the movement goes on. It is said that some of the lodge goats are getting a little tired at the excessive labor and think they ought to be turned out to refreshments and pasture for a while to get ready for the heavy work of the fall and winter.

Knights of Pythias.

The Grand Lodge of Knights of Pythias for the domain of Ohio has been in session this week in Cleveland. There was a large attendance of delegates and visiting brethren from the various lodges of the state. The reports made to the Grand Lodge from the various subordinate lodges throughout the state show the order to be in a very flourishing condition, numerically and financially. The Knights of Pythias in Ohio now number over 10,000, making Ohio the banner Pythian state of the Union. In addition to its numerous benefactions to sick brethren and to families of deceased Knights, the Pythian Children's home at Springfield, O., is perhaps Ohio's brightest Pythian jewel, and it is one to which the order in this state, be it said to its credit, is most liberal. Here hundreds of bright and promising children find a true home. They are lodged, fed and clothed and educated and trained to grow up into useful men and women. Newark lodge is represented at the Grand Lodge at Cleveland by George P. Webb and Jesse Grove, and Roland Lodge is represented by Frank Hirst and J. A. Pfeiffer.

White Cross held its regular session at the Opera House last Thursday night, a large number of the brothers being present. The matter of purchasing the two lots, on which sites were formerly located the Varner Bros. and Harding store rooms, of Royal Kesson, was voted on and carried without a dissenting vote. It was decided to build a two-story brick building, the upper story to be used as a Castle Hall, and the lower story for mercantile purposes. A building committee was appointed with instructions to the work as rapidly as possible. As soon as the debris can be cleared away and material can be secured, White Cross, in common with other enterprising spirits will begin the work of rebuilding the burnt district.—Johnstown Independent.

Newark Council, No. 1, held a large and very interesting meeting with about 350 members present. A class of 50 were initiated in the first degree and a much larger class in the second and third degrees. A special car from Columbus brought 50 visitors from Columbus Council, also a number from Lancaster Council. After the business of the evening was transacted a banquet was served, which was greatly enjoyed by all. The dance held by the members at Buckeye Lake on Friday evening was quite a success, as about 150 took part in the enjoyment of the evening.

B. P. O. E.

Newark Lodge, No. 391, B. P. O. E., is making active preparations to attend the Elks National Reunion at Cincinnati during the week in July beginning the 18th. It is expected to charter a special car and the lodge will go in a body. This reunion promises to be the biggest and best of the many big and good reunions held by the order. The Queen City is sparing no efforts to give the visiting Elks within her gates during the reunion the biggest and best time ever held by the order anywhere. Forty thousand dollars have been appropriated by the reunion committee alone for the entertainment of the Elks and all sorts of special features will be introduced. Cincinnati will be in a blaze of light and glory during the entire week. In addition to the regular exercises of the reunion, which of themselves will be most interesting, many delightful side trips will be taken to Coney Island and other nearby pleasure resorts. No Newark Elk should fail to be present and enjoy the unparalleled attractions of this reunion. The ride to Cincinnati is a comparatively short one, and the rate will be one fare for the round trip, plus 25 cents. Those who prefer it can make the entire trip on the interurban, a decided novelty.

Modern Woodmen of America.

Newark not only possesses the biggest stove foundry in the world, but it also has the largest camp of Modern Woodmen of America in Ohio, and perhaps in the world. Cedar Camp, No. 4727, M. W. A., now has a membership of 1040, and the number is constantly growing. This membership comprises the best citizens of Newark and surrounding country. There are also camps of Woodmen at Jackson-town, Pataskala, Helion and Utica, and other points in the county. The order offers very attractive insurance at moderate rates, and is noted for its friendliness and true fraternal feeling.

Odd Fellows.

A large number of the Odd Fellows of Newark and the Daughters of Rebekah are planning a delightful and profitable excursion for the near future, which no Odd Fellow or Rebekah should fail to attend. On Wednesday morning, June 23, the Odd Fellows and Daughters of Rebekah will take a special interurban car for Springfield, where after a delightful trolley ride through the most beautiful portion of the state, they will spend the remainder of the day in visiting and inspecting the Odd Fellows Home at Springfield. This home is one of the most beautiful and interesting institutions of the kind in the country, and is well worthy a visit and inspection, as it is a monument to Odd Fellows of which every Odd Fellow and Daughter of Rebekah is justly proud. Fuller details of the excursion will be given later in The Advocate.

At the meeting of Newark Lodge 623, I. O. O. F., held on Monday night there was a good attendance of the members and the first and third degrees were conferred on three candidates.

In Olive Branch Lodge on Tuesday evening in the second degree was conferred on one candidate.

At the meeting of Mt. Olive Encampment held on Thursday night there was a good attendance of the members and there was work in the first degree.

VITONA

"The New Way to Health"

This wonderful prescription—it is not a mere patent medicine—has been used with marvelous success in hundreds of cases by a physician in his private practice. It contains a secret ingredient discovered by a German chemist, from whom we have purchased the American rights. This chemical vital organs which depend upon the condition of the blood.

acts directly on the blood, cleansing it of all impurities, destroying the germs and thereby restoring health to all the vital organs of the body.

When these organs are diseased it is always a sign of some disorder in the blood. Thousands of people have blood disease and don't know it. They think the ailment is local to the organs affected and treat them instead of getting at the real seat of the disease and eradicating it completely by means of Vitona. Here are symptoms of blood trouble:

Some Dangerous Symptoms:

Headache, Indigestion, Coated Tongue, Backache, Exhaustion, Poor Appetite, Sallow Complexion, Biliousness, Constipation or Sleeplessness.

Don't Delay! Act! If you have a single one of these symptoms, it is a sign that your blood needs treatment, and you should not delay an hour, but begin using "Vitona" at once. You can not afford to take any chances of letting your condition terminate fatally. You can be saved and restored to perfect health by the use of this great remedy and you owe it to yourself, your family and friends, to take prompt steps to put yourself at once in the way to recovery. Price of Vitona is $1.00. Written guarantee given with each bottle.

The Newark readers will be interested in the following extract taken from the Cleveland Leader, regarding the commencement exercises of Baldwin University. One of the prominent figures was Mrs. J. M. Graham, a former towns-woman.

"Dr. Hoyt on behalf of the trustees, announced that at a meeting of the trustees that body had awarded the degree of doctor of divinity to Rev. Jas. Simister of China, and the degree of master of letters to Mrs. Evelyn Norton Graham of Baltimore, Md., and these honorary degrees were accordingly conferred.

"The exercises were presided over by Professor G. F. Collier. Miss Emma Finley, Ph. B. delivered the "white rose" oration, and short addresses were made by Mrs. Evelyn Graham of Baltimore, Md., Professor A. M. Mattison of Berca, and Chaplain G. W. Collier of Delaware, Ohio.

One of the most pleasant events of the week was given by the Minnewa Band, in honor of their leader, Mr. J. P. Baker, at his home No. 11 Seventh street. The house was beautifully decorated with ferns and red and white roses. The evening was spent in vocal and instrumental music. The Jolly Nine were also present. On behalf of Minnewa Band, Mr. William Darke presented Mr. Baker with a handsome gold watch chain, and Miss Rhoda Bussey, on behalf of the Jolly Nine, presented him with a handsome silk umbrella. At a late hour a sumptuous Walter Sperry of Utica, and Mr. and Mrs. Chris Herman.

Miss Ella Beilmer, a popular East End school teacher, was the recipient of a delightful surprise on Friday evening. She had been invited to the home of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Starr, 317 West Church street, to spend the evening, when the crowd of young people put in appearance. Miss Beilmer, although greatly surprised, was equal to the occasion, and devoted herself during the evening to the entertainment of her self-invited guests. Pedro and Finch were largely the diversions. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Chris Herman, Mr. Eggleston, Miss Eva Thacker, Miss Alice Ashbrook, Miss Wulhoop, Miss Kate Foss, Mr. Wyeth, Miss Verna Foy and Miss Clara Smith of Cambridge.

A Musicales Extraordinary.
Lovers of good music will have an opportunity to hear a delightful program presented in an interesting and unique manner at the East Main Street M. E. church, next Thursday evening, June 23. The affair is entitled: "Our Presidents, a Musical Extraordinary," and is under the direction of Prof. N. B. Yearley, which insures thorough preparation and satisfactory results, musically and otherwise. The regular choir of the church has been augmented and prominent soloists have been secured for the occasion. Miss Bertha Penney, Miss Eva Francis, soprano; Mr. Walter Bentley Ball, baritone, and Miss Helen Early, reader, will participate. Aside from the pleasing performance of these well-known people, a special feature has been prepared as the closing and crowning number of the entertainment, "Our Presidents," by 30 school children (Miss Nellie Downey's sixth grade class, from Mills street school). These young people will be assisted by the full choir in a grand ensemble chorus, and will be directed by "Uncle Sam," in the person of Master Carl Reynard, who made such a "hit" as the Chinaman in "Little Bo-Boop." The sweet voices of the children will sing the story of those great ones who have guided our Ship of State so successfully thus far, after which Uncle Sam will name "Our Next President."

The entertainment is to be given for the benefit of the church building fund—a worthy object—and, considering the attractive nature of the program, ought to be very successful.

ZANESVILLE
WAS AN EASY MARK IN FRIDAY AFTERNOON'S GAME.

Newark Won Nine to Two—Urban Plays at Idlewild Today and Sunday.

Zanesville, as represented by a baseball team, was completely outclassed by the Idlewild team Friday afternoon, the home team winning by a score of 9 to 2. The result of the game was never in doubt, the size of the score being the only matter of speculation. Drumm has a team of big men, but they cannot put up the game that the locals are capable of and the consequence was the "Moguls" were played completely off their feet. At no time did they have a chance to win, and when Wagner missed a chance for a double play, the runs came in that were scored to their credit.

Justice, the brilliant little shortstop of the Idlewild team, made four hits out of four times at bat, while Purcell made three doubles and a single out of five times up. The tabulated score follows:

TWO GAMES
Are to Be Played at Newark on Monday and Tuesday With the Zanesville Moguls.

Manager Driscoll has made arrangements with Fred Drumm for two more games with the Zanesville "Moguls" Monday and Tuesday of next week. It seems that the Clay City aggregation were not satisfied with the drubbing they received Friday at the hands of the Idlewild sluggers. Both games will doubtless be well attended.

MERCHANTS
Won Friday Afternoon's Five-Inning Game by the Score of Seventeen to Five at Y. M. C. A.

The second game of the series being played off by the Home League of the Y. M. C. A., Athletic field, was won Friday afternoon by the merchants. They defeated the Wehrle team by a score of 17 to 5. The game was replete with star plays, errors, home runs and fun. Many once-upon-a-time favorites at the bat, were on the line-up of both teams, but the Wehrle men were not able to stand before Hoyt's swift balls and terrible curves. Next Friday afternoon the Merchants will play the Doctors, winners of the June 10th game, and their fierce antagonists of last year. No doubt the long-disputed championship will be settled in that game. No one should miss it.

Friday's score:
Merchants 2 4 0 4 7-17
Wehrle 2 3 0 0 0-5

Batteries—Merchants, Hershberg, Hoyt and Benner and Nehls. Wehrle—Wright, Meser and Bowden.

GAME CANCELLED.
The Newark High School baseball team was about to board the 11 o'clock interurban car for Columbus today when a telephone message came from the Capital City, calling off the game. The manager of the South High, Columbus, said that it was impossible to get suitable grounds there for the game today.

The Newark fellows were disappointed at the result. They all had their batting clothes on and were going over to clean up the south High as they had never seen "cleaned" before.

SATURDAY MORNING GAME.
The Choir team defeated the Granville Kids Saturday morning on the Woodside diamond by a score of 4 to 3. The game was one of the best juvenile contests of the season.

STRAIN TOO GREAT.
Hundreds of Newark Readers Find It So.

The hustle and worry of business men. The hard work and stooping of workmen. The woman's household cares. Are too great a strain on the kidneys. Backache, headache, sideache, Kidney troubles, urinary troubles follow.

A Newark citizen tells you how to cure them all.

Mrs. J. T. Purcell, 315 Schuler St., says: "My back ached all the time. As a rule it was very severe, but hurt me much more when I over-exerted myself or occupied certain positions in which my back was strained considerably or when I was sitting sewing. I obtained little benefit from the treatment which I took so little, in fact, that I was induced to try Doan's Kidney Pills when Crayton Bros. first advertised them in Newark. They did for me what others failed to do, for they took away from my back that distressing pain and ache. I know of friends of mine who were as much the gainers through their use as I."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McMillan Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name Doan's and take no other.

Nightmare.
He was awakened in the middle of the night by the sound of a great weeping. "For mercy's sake," he cried, shaking his better half, wake up! What's the matter anyhow?"

"Oh," she sobbed, "I dreamed that Cella M. Cheep had the biggest bargain sale in his history and you were dying and I couldn't go."—Brooklyn Life.

Faith Stronger Than Sight.
Mr. A. was helping himself generously to the hash served at a summer boarding house.

"How is it," said his wife, Mrs. A., "that you eat hash at a stranger's table and always decline it at home?"

"Because I do not know what this hash is made of,"—Lippincott's Magazine.

The Freshest Yet.
"This order of poached eggs on toast doesn't look very nice," said the cranky guest. "Are you sure the eggs were fresh laid?"

"Sure," replied the waiter, "they were laid right on the toast."—Philadelphia Ledger.

The Making of a Great Man.
"Socrates was a wonderfully patient, forbearing, forgiving, though greatly imposed upon man," said Mrs. Meekton.

"Yes," answered Leonidas, "and I understand he owed it all to his wife."—Washington Star.

Refused to Pay Another's.
The Tailor—And you refuse to settle this bill? Why, you are not the same man you used to be.

Harduppe—Not the same man? Well, then, how do you expect me to pay?—Philadelphia Record.

Limited.
Henriques—I understand you gratify your wife's slightest wish.

Ottenger—Yes. It is only her more expensive wishes that I do not gratify.—Judge.

HER HIGHNESS
Some forty years ago an American who had made a fortune in organizing wrecked railroads appeared at Baden-Baden, Germany. Baden-Baden at that time was what Monte Carlo is now, the gambling resort for all Europe. The American, Benedict Wuffles, was in fact a smart fellow. He had unlimited means, with which he set to work to break the bank at Baden-Baden, and it was not long before he found the secret of how to do so. His play soon attracted universal attention, and his credit was such that he had accomplished his object. Then Mr. Wuffles suddenly sank into a condition of ennui, awaiting some other point of attack for his tremendous brain.

HER HIGHNESS
Wuffles agreed, and the next evening he appeared at the gambling tables, while the princess sat behind watching him. He would bet on one card, losing, and continue to bet without change on the same card, doubling the amount, till he won. This was all of his plan that was apparent, the rest of it being based on certain mental calculations of probabilities. Nevertheless he seemed confident that he would break the bank and did so about 2 o'clock in the morning. He stuffed his winnings in his pockets. The princess slipped her little hand within his arm and led him to her carriage. In ten minutes they were in her supper room before a table loaded with delicacies. Two or three acquaintances were also present for propriety's sake.

Wuffles was in glory.
Once he forgot the difference in rank between himself and his hostess and squeezed her hand, but was sharply recalled to himself by a hauteur that chilled him to the marrow.

"Pardon me, your highness," he said. "I forgot myself."

The princess smiled kindly and in token of her forgiveness offered him her own unfinished glass of wine. Wuffles drank it off in an ecstasy.

The next thing Wuffles knew it was morning. He was in bed, and a man was standing over him with a paper in his hand. It proved to be an unpaid bill for rent for the villa, made out in his name.

"But where is?" He must not give up the princess and hesitated.

"Oh, they've gone. The woman took the house in your name. She said she was your wife, but I knew better than that. She's been here before."

Wuffles stared at the man a few moments. Then it rushed upon him that he had been "done." But he was good grit, and his pride kept him up.

"All right," he said. "I'll pay."

He knew well enough that his winnings of the night before were gone and did not look for them. Instead, he told the man to come to his hotel later on and he would receive his money. Before Wuffles left the villa he had also agreed to pay for the supplies "the princess" was indebted for she had paid none of them, besides running up sundry miscellaneous bills, all in Wuffles' name, and he at last paid for the supper which had been ordered to celebrate his coup at the casino.

HER HIGHNESS
Some forty years ago an American who had made a fortune in organizing wrecked railroads appeared at Baden-Baden, Germany. Baden-Baden at that time was what Monte Carlo is now, the gambling resort for all Europe. The American, Benedict Wuffles, was in fact a smart fellow. He had unlimited means, with which he set to work to break the bank at Baden-Baden, and it was not long before he found the secret of how to do so. His play soon attracted universal attention, and his credit was such that he had accomplished his object. Then Mr. Wuffles suddenly sank into a condition of ennui, awaiting some other point of attack for his tremendous brain.

OF DAVID STEFFEN, WHO WAS RE-CENTLY PAROLED.

Newark Ladies Who Were Frightened
Thursday Night Identified the Man Here Saturday.

David Steffen, who has been out of the Mansfield State Reformatory for one or two months on a parole, was arrested Saturday morning by the Newark officers and will be returned to the Mansfield reformatory Monday morning.

Steffen had been suspected for some time past with having had something to do with the numerous burglaries and hold-ups that have occurred here.
Under orders from Chief Sheridan the Newark police kept a sharp lookout for him, but it was not until Saturday morning that they were able to locate him. He was arrested in Baker's alley.

Mrs. F. Rees and Mrs. C. C. Cooper, who were held up Thursday night at ten o'clock on West Church street, and who had a revolver pointed at them, came to the police station Saturday morning and identified Steffen as the man who had confronted them with an intention of robbing them. Miss Alice Murphy also saw him and is positive that she saw him Thursday in the vicinity of the attempted hold-up.

Chief Sheridan telephoned to the reformatory officials at Mansfield and they stated that they would send for the man at once.

SECOND ALARM

Was Soon Followed by the "Out" Tap
—This Tells How the Thing Happened.

Jack Whiting, the well-known Colored hostler, was arrested about twelve o'clock Saturday noon for turning in a second alarm to the fire department.
Whiting wanted to hear "the alarm go off."

The first alarm was turned in from box 23 at 11:20 o'clock and the central department made a quick run to the city dumping grounds, where they found some paper burning. The small blaze was easily extinguished, much to the disgust of Mr. Whiting, who seemed to want a first-class excitement. As the firemen were getting ready to leave, Whiting turned in another alarm. He was placed under arrest and will be given a hearing Monday.

had died at her home in Sterling, Ill.,
after a prolonged illness. Mr. Ebersole received word of her serious condition a few days ago and left at once for her bedside, together with his wife

Pocketbook Found.

A pocketbook was found Saturday in the alley by the side of the D. & N.
House block by Albert Williams, who states that he found it in such a location that he believes it was purposely thrown there after having been stolen. The pocketbook contained no money, but a tax receipt made out in the name of Jasper G. Blamer for $12.25, and dated May 23, was found in the purse. As Barnum & Bailey's circus was here on that date it is presumed that Mr. Blamer was robbed of the pocketbook in the crowds and after the money was taken the book was thrown away. The pocketbook is at

RAILROAD NOTES.

Will Not Be So Tight.

It is believed that after the close of the present month that the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad company will place more men in the service where the forces have been cut down during the past few weeks. This month ends the fiscal year, and while the business is very good now and more men are needed in the service, the expense is being held down to the close of the fiscal year. This is to keep within the limit of the yearly expenditure.
